OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The founders of the above Trust sincerely believe that the messages and doctrines, contained in the Indian Philosophical and religious literature such as the Bhagavad Gita, Upanishads, etc. are inspiring and universal in their appeal, irrespective of one's religious beliefs. So they are desirous of bringing about greater awareness of these messages and doctrines to the Indian Public, particularly to the younger generation, irrespective of one's religion, caste or creed. The programmes currently being carried out are :

1. Organising and conducting regular chanting classes in selected schools and Sangh premises in regard to selected passages from the Upanishads, and full texts of Sri Venkateswara Suprabhatam, Sundara Kandam, Vishnu Sahasranamam, Gita and other Storra Ratnas.
2. Organising and conducting regular as well as periodical discourses in regard to Indian Philosophical literature in general and Bhagavad Gita in particular.
3. Organising and conducting weekly Satsangh prayers wherein chantings from the Gita and other Indian Scriptures (Hymns and Mantras) and brief discourses will be undertaken.
4. Organising and Conducting "Essay Writing" and "Recitation" Competitions in respect of Indian Scriptures and the Bhagavad Gita, among the College and School students.
