Collins Classics

Collins Classics comprise books whose popularity, tried by time, has proved permanent. Each title is worthy of the name 'classic'; they are all eminently readable, and together they cover the wide field of literature from the humorous to the dramatic. We recommend the following selection, obtainable from all booksellers.

A TOUR TO THE HEBRIDES	James Boswell
WUTHERING HEIGHTS	Emily Brontë
THE WAY OF ALL FLESH	Samuel Butler
AN OUTCAST OF THE ISLANDS & ALMAYER'S FOOLY	Joseph Conrad
TOM JONES	Henry Fielding
MADAME BOVARY	Gustave Flaubert
THE VICAR OF WAKEFIELD	Oliver Goldsmith
THE DIARY OF A NOBODY	G. & W. Grossmith
THE TALEN OF THE SCREW, THE ASPERN PAPERS & OTHER STORIES	Henry James
SONS AND LOVERS	D. H. Lawrence
TALES, POEMS & ESSAYS	Edgar Allan Poe
76 SHORT STORIES	Saki
THE STORY OF AN AFRICAN FARM	Olive Schreiner
POEMS	Shelley
TRISTRAM SHANDY	Laurence Sterne
THE IDYLLS OF THE KING & THE PRINCESS	Lord Tennyson
VANITY FAIR	W. M. Thackeray
