PAN BOOKS LTD : LONDON

'A beautifully made book'

Yorkshire Post

'The collection covers the whole range of English literature'

Times Literary Supplement

'For the literary man, the public speaker, the crossword addict, there could be no better choice. This easy-to-find-your-way-about reference book is as comprehensive as any I know in its field'

Bristol Evening Post

'Superlatively good value. There are hours of pleasure here'

Current Literature

'Should be in all schools and colleges. A work of authority and distinction'

The London Teacher

A DICTIONARY OF FAMOUS QUOTATIONS took over five years to compile. Its exceptionally clear and attractive presentation makes it a delight to read, and the lively selection of quotations encourages the browser as well as those looking up specific references.

The extremely comprehensive index, with over 25,000 entries, enables a partly-remembered quotation to be traced with maximum speed.

The emphasis is on quotations familiar to the general reader, and the 700 authors represented cover all kinds of writing, serious and light, from early times right up to the present day.
