HAREM GIRL,
PROSTITUTE,
BROTHEL-KEEPER
AND WHITE-SLAVER.

MADAM JANTINA WAS
ALL OF THESE. THIS IS HER STORY AS SHE LIVED IT.

Jantina Vanderpoul, the daughter of a Dutch father and an Egyptian mother, was sold into slavery in early adolescence.

Not in ancient times, but in Cairo in 1929!

Her life, until her escape from Egypt in 1967, was a series of erotic adventures more bizarre than anything in Psychopathia Sexualis, the works of the Marquis de Sade or The Story of O.

Madam Jantina's moral and physical degradation is set against the corruption and depravity of Egyptian political life from the 1930's up to the present and includes the sexual aberrations of Nasser himself. Its utter honesty makes CAIRO MADAM an important social document as well as one of the most intimate confessions of our time.
