YOU TOO CAN HAVE A PERFECT MEMORY

Dominic O'Brien is the current World Memory Champion, having won the title two years in a row. He holds two Guinness Book of Records entries for memorising the sequence of thirty-five packs of shuffled cards in the staggering time of 55.62 seconds. How does he do it?

What is his system and how can it help you remember names, faces, telephone numbers, pass exams, learn languages and clean up at the Blackjack table?

HOW TO DEVELOP A PERFECT MEMORY
