GODAN

A MASTERPIECE OF PEASANT INDIA

GODAN, Premchand's last completed novel, is considered his best work. It is the most realistic interpretation of Indian village society, the backbone of India. It is a story of a changing people, hungry and semi-starved, yet hopeful and optimistic, in the truest spirit of the age it represents.

".....the true and vivid picture of India."

— The Hindustan Standard

".....probably the only great novel in Hindi."

— The Statesman

"In this last novel of Premchand is present every personage that has lent its character to traditional rural India."

— Thought

".....no Indian should miss this novel, which Premchand wrote with tears."

— The Nagpur Times

".....Premchand's last masterpiece."

— The Hindu
