

HD1018 60*

THE BANTAM LANGUAGE LIBRARY

A HOLIDAY MAGAZINE LANGUAGE BOOK FOR BEGINNERS BY MARIO PEI AND JOHN FISHER

GETTING ALONG IN FRENCH

This new, handy language aid for students and travelers contains over 1100 essential, ready-to-use, everyday phrases, a simple pronunciation guide, a condensed grammar, and a basic 1800-word vocabulary in English-French and French-English.

GETTING ALONG IN FRENCH

A HOLIDAY MAGAZINE LANGUAGE BOOK

BY MARIO PEI

Professor of Romance Philology, Columbia University and

JOHN FISHER

Assistant Professor of Modern Languages
Fairleigh Dickinson University with the editorial collaboration of

PAUL LANGELLIER

Professor of French
Adelphi College

BANTAM BOOKS — NEW YORK

Contents

I	The French Language	1
II	Phrases	16
	1. Passport	16
	2. Customs	18
	3. Baggage	20
	4. Tickets	22
	5. Travel by Boat	25
	6. Travel by Train or Plane	27
	7. Travel by Bus or Streetcar	30
	8. Travel by Taxi or Other Hired Conveyance	32
	9. Driving Your Own Car	33
	10. Hotel, Boardinghouse, Apartment	38
	11. Money, Bank, Measures	45
	12. Writing and Post Office	48
	13. Cable and Telephone	50
	14. Shopping	52
	15. Places of Interest (Church, Theater, Sight- Seeing, Night Life)	61
	16. Medical, Dental, Drugstore, Parts of Body	65
	17. Laundry, Dry Cleaning, Barbershop, Beauty Salon	70
	18. Food, Restaurant, Dishes	73
	19. Numerals	84

20.	Time of Day, Week, Month, Seasons, Weather, Age	86
21.	Emergencies and Language Difficulties	91
22.	Exclamations, Colloquialisms, Slang	97
23.	Greetings, Etiquette, Social Amenities	98
24.	Directions and Signs	102
III	Grammatical Outline	106
IV	English—French Vocabulary	123
V	French—English Vocabulary	164

with this book everybody can learn

FRENCH

for the traveler:

Easy, phonetic syllables for every word you need to deal with passports, customs, baggage, tickets, hotels, restaurants — everything and everyone up to the time you leave for home.

for the student:

A time-saver for pre-exam review, a self-pronouncing list of the most-used French words, a useful and intriguing essay on the French language.

for everybody:

An invaluable, quick, short course in French!

Also available

GETTING ALONG IN SPANISH

GETTING ALONG IN GERMAN

GETTING ALONG IN ITALIAN

GETTING ALONG IN RUSSIAN

