A PANTHER BOOK

NAUGHTY CLEMENTINE!

She's the pin-up of Paris . . . the strip sensation of Rome . . . the darling of Madrid . . . And in London? Well you know Clementine—and if you don't, believe us when we say she is irresistibly saucy, deliciously naughty and oh-so-provocatively French! Please, excuse our raving but we really can't help ourselves, and you won't be able to either, because about this Mademoiselle everyone agrees she's the 'Most'.

Jean Bellus was born in Toulouse, France, in 1911, son of a wine merchant. His first work appeared in 1933, and since then drawings have appeared in all the world's leading magazines and newspapers.
