

READER'S DIGEST

FAMILY
HEALTH
GUIDE

Reader's Digest

FAMILY
HEALTH
GUIDE

PUBLISHED BY THE READER'S DIGEST ASSOCIATION LIMITED
LONDON · CAPE TOWN · MONTREAL · SYDNEY

Contents

Part I THE LIVING BODY

The structure and workings of the organs and systems of the human body.

1	What is man?
2	Growth and development
	First weeks and months	26
	Baby care	32
	The early years	35
	Childhood to adolescence	37
3	Designed for action
	Framework of the bones	42
	Joints and muscles	44
	Avoiding back trouble	46
	Lifting and carrying	48
	Standing and pushing	50
	Exercise	52
4	Eating and drinking
	Right amount of food	56
	How the body handles food	59
	How the body handles fluids	67
	Menus	70
	Special diets	72
5	Keeping the body running
	Blood: the vital fluid	74
	The pump that never tires	78
	The breath of life	85
	Hormones: the chemical messengers	88
6	Defences against illness
	Injury and infection	98
	Natural defences	104
	Infection—prevention and treatment	106
7	The living senses
	The miracle of sight	110
	Twin senses of the ears	118
	Partners in perception	124
	Sense of pain and pleasure	128
	Safeguarding the senses	130
8	Thinking and learning
	The master controller	132
	A vital cord	136
	Memory	142
	Sleep and dreams	144
9	A new life begins
	Male and female	148
	A cycle of changes	152
	The start of pregnancy	154
	Development of the baby	158
	The birth of a baby	162
	Care during pregnancy	165
	Exercises	168
	Which parent will the baby take after?	172
10	Looking after your health
	The young adult	174
	The middle years	177
	The later years	178
	Caring for the sick	182
	Keeping a sick child amused	189

