

PEOPLE

COMPUTER MANAGER

A Franklin Watts Book

COMPUTER MANAGER

Text: Susan Pepper
Photography: Chris Fairclough

FRANKLIN WATTS

LONDON / NEW YORK / SYDNEY / TORONTO

Contents

Being a computer manager	6
Information Services	8
The computer room	10
Checking the network	12
Instructing a computer	14
Writing a program	16
Working the computers	18
Information exchange	21
Word processing	22
Micrographics	23
Maintenance	24
Training for the job	26
Computers in history	28
Background	30
Glossary	31
Index	32

Franklin Watts Limited
12a Golden Square
London W1R 4BA

Copyright © 1985 Franklin Watts Limited

ISBN: 0 86313 734 0

Phototypeset by Tradespools Limited
Frome, Somerset
Printed in Hong Kong

Text Editor: Andrew Langley
Consultant: Stephen Peigler
Design: Edward Kinsey
Illustration (pages 9, 11): Tony Payne
Photograph: page 29, IBM

The Publishers, author and photographer would like to thank John Dean and Kodak
Australasia Pty Ltd for their co-operation in the preparation of this book.

A new series of books which presents a candid view of the working life of a wide range of people. A clear text and specially taken photographs illuminate all aspects of their work from the routine to the unusual. A full picture of the type of work is also given by artwork, a facts and figures section and a glossary.

Titles in the series

Air Stewardess • Computer Manager
Dairy Farmer • Dentist
Fighter Pilot • Firefighter
Librarian • Model
Nurse • Policewoman
Soldier • Vet

ISBN 0 86313 234 0

£4.95 net
(UK only)