'Here is a book which is a pearl of great price. It will mean everything. Truth, beauty, and goodness, to those who understand... a heavenly book, rooted in earth.'
TREVOR HUDDLESTON, GUARDIAN

'Beautifully written; most moving. The book is superbly produced to offset Papas' brilliant drawings.'
COLIN MORRIS

'It all happened thirty years ago, but the book is as alive and up-to-the-minute as if it was describing something that happened last week. What the book brings out is the placid intensity of this six-year-old's awareness of Mister God. It is demanding and challenging - and very human.'
FATHER THOMAS CORBISHLEY, UNIVERSE

'The larger than life quality of the East End, the explosive bawdy humour and rough warmth of relationships, give this book a colourful background. But here at last is a book about a real child. Few can fail to be charmed by the magical quality of this child. The enchanting drawings are a splendid bonus to a beautifully produced book.'
