This widely-used book is specially designed for learners of English as a second or foreign language. Its features include: a comprehensive index which makes it easy to use; a careful and detailed treatment of those points which students of English find particularly difficult; a new treatment of the future tense; indication of the difference between ordinary conversational usage and strict grammatical form; a list of over 300 verb and preposition/adverb combinations; a chapter on spelling rules; the use of simple English for all explanations and copious examples in good modern English.
