THE AUTHOR

SHRI V. B. KULKARNI has written a number of books, many of which have won wide recognition both in India and abroad. He was for many years an active journalist and held important positions in his profession. In 1946-47, he served on the Ceylon Daily News, Colombo, as expert on Indian affairs and his writings on this country's constitutional problems were read with deep interest.

He returned to India soon after national independence and became the Editor of The National Standard (now The Indian Express), Bombay.

Shri Kulkarni's published works include The Future of Indian States, Is Pakistan Necessary?, Constitution Made Easy, British Statesmen in India, Shivaji: Portrait of a Patriot and British Dominion in India and After.

He is now holding a responsible position in an organisation unconnected with journalism.
