

PERSON OF THE CENTURY

TIME

ALBERT
EINSTEIN

TRIP AMONG THE CENTURY'S GREATS Albert Einstein on the beach at Santa Barbara, California

Person of the Century

TIME'S CHOICE: Who Mattered—and Why by Walter Isaacson 8

ALBERT EINSTEIN: Person of the Century by Frederic Golden 24
 An eccentric dominated by the accomplishments of science, the now-legendary scientist discovered that the world was not as it seemed simply by thinking about it

A BRIEF HISTORY OF RELATIVITY by Stephen Hawking 28

The world's most famous living physicist explains how a young clerk changed our understanding of space, time and reality

BEYOND EINSTEIN by J. Markens Nash 34

The latest studies of string theory may eventually be able to explain what Einstein could not

THE AGE OF EINSTEIN by Roger Rosenblatt 42

The century's foremost academic encapsulated the postwar

FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT by Doris Kearns Goodwin 48
 America's towering wartime Socialist rallied the efforts that preserved capitalism and democracy

CAPTAIN COLCAGOSSON by Bill Clinton 67

The current U.S. President weighs E.O.'s legacy

MHATRAS GANDHI by John H. Coatsworth 90

Both a "great soul" and a difficult man, Gandhi awakened the century to timeless moral ideas

THE SACRED WARRIOR by Nelson Mandela 74

South Africa's towering leader inspires his legacy

THE CHILDREN OF GANDHI: A Political History of Nonviolence 76

Gandhi's legacy lives on in the ranks of committed activists

THE NECESSARY EVIL? Why Hitler Is Not Person of the Century 86

Nancy Gibbs looks at the influence of a monstrous ill

100 YEARS OF ATTITUDE: Art in the 20th Century 83
 Richard Schickel examines the forces of modernism

THE MOST IMPORTANT PEOPLE OF THE MILLENNIUM 100
 TIME picks a standout for each century from 1000 to 1900

(plus names-up and a selective look at the last thousand years)
WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR: The child of chaos set in place a new order among European monarchies 109

SALADIN: The Kurdish adventurer tested the Crusaders not only in battle, but in manners 112

GENGHIS KHAN: An "Oceanic Ruler" flattened empires like a tidal wave, causing ripples that would extend even further 115

GIOTTO: The art of the Renaissance was born from his revolutionary paintings of natural figures 120

JOHANN GUTENBERG: With his movable type, he launched an information revolution that continues to this day 124

QUEEN ELIZABETH I: England's star monarch turned a poor and humiliated country toward an imperial future 132

ISAAC NEWTON: By finding rationality in the universe, he redeigned the human mind 134

THOMAS EDISON: His thought transcended his life, giving the unlightenment its most succinct expression 142

THOMAS EDISON: New Jersey's hard-working wizard epitomized

an age of invention 146

ESSAY by Robert Wright 153

NEWS QUIZ: 100 questions about the past 100 years 159

Find out more about the Person of the Century at www.time.com

© 2009 Time Inc. Magazine. All rights reserved. TIME is a registered trademark of Time Inc. Magazine. All other trademarks are the property of their respective owners. TIME is published weekly, except for two issues combined annually in December. Single copies are available for purchase at a special price. For more information, visit www.time.com. For advertising information, visit www.time.com/time/advertising. For subscription information, visit www.time.com/time/subscribe. For circulation information, visit www.time.com/time/circulation. For reprint information, visit www.time.com/time/reprints. For permission to quote or reproduce material from TIME, visit www.time.com/time/permissions. For more information, visit www.time.com/time. TIME is published by Time Inc. Magazine, a division of Time Inc. Company. TIME is published weekly, except for two issues combined annually in December. Single copies are available for purchase at a special price. For more information, visit www.time.com. For advertising information, visit www.time.com/time/advertising. For subscription information, visit www.time.com/time/subscribe. For circulation information, visit www.time.com/time/circulation. For reprint information, visit www.time.com/time/reprints. For permission to quote or reproduce material from TIME, visit www.time.com/time/permissions. For more information, visit www.time.com/time.

Think different.