

WORLD-VIEW — 1999
AND EVANGELISATION 2000
AND BEYOND

P. PARAMESWARAN
(President, Vivekananda Kendra)

Reprint of the Editorials in Yuva Bharati, January and February '99

VIVEKANANDA KENDRA
PRAKASHAN

WORLD-VIEW — 1999

AND

EVANGELISATION 2000

AND BEYOND

By

P. PARAMESWARAN

A VIVEKANANDA KENDRA PUBLICATION

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

A scholar, a great thinker and social worker, Shri P. Parameswaran, President of Vivekananda Kendra, had a distinguished academic career. His chief interest was in Social Sciences, mainly History, in which he did his post-graduation with distinction.

From early childhood he had a great inclination towards the study of Hinduism. He was intimately connected with most of the Hindu social and cultural organisations, particularly with Sri Ramakrishna Mission and Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh.

He is wholly devoted to social service. He worked in various capacities in the Bharatiya Jana Sangh, starting as its Organising Secretary in Kerala and rising to the position of its All-India Vice-President. He has been ceaselessly writing articles and books on social, cultural and religious themes.

For four years - 1977-1981 - Sri Parameswaranji was Director of the Deen Dayal Research Institute, Delhi. In that capacity, he was responsible for a number of publications of a high academic standard. He had also edited the prestigious Quarterly, MANIHAN.

In 1982, he started the Bharatiya Vichar Kendram, a Centre for studies in national reconstruction, with Thiruvananthapuram as its headquarters, of which he is the Director. Presently the Vichar Kendram has 35 units in Kerala.