The strong feeling that I get is that your poems have a distinct intellectual content. For instance your poem 'contrariety' and 'wherever it is seen' are embodied in paradoxes which hint at a metaphysical insight.

U.R. Anantha Murthy
in a letter to sirpi

Sirpi, the poet has a fantastic range...
His poems disturb me.
They provoke me to search for more clarifications in life.
I believe that is the object of poetry and such poetry will survive.
